

Reported-number ratios across event periods

One point per species for the 46 estimable count models; diamonds mark arithmetic means.

The active-period box is the duration-weighted composite of spawn start and early egg availability, not a sixth period.