

Highlights

- All 49 support-qualified species are shown, independent of prior literature.
- Common shore and sea birds had positive, negative, and mixed associations.
- Event timing did not follow one community-wide resource-pulse trajectory.
- Matched WCVI sensitivities preserved 15 of 16 coefficient directions.
- A non-null specificity panel limits simple taxon-specific interpretation.